

“Planning and Conducting State and Notable Funerals”

with Robert Boetticher, Sr.

Robert “Bob” Boetticher, Sr. is an American funeral director, best known for the planning and implementation of memorial services for celebrities and notable individuals. He was the lead funeral director and embalmer for the state funerals of George H. W. Bush, Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan, four First Ladies and has coordinated and directed some of the most visible funerals in recent history for a variety of well-known politicians, cabinet members, business leaders, entertainers and clergy.

With a career spanning nearly five decades, he has become a renowned figure in the death care profession. He is also a nationally known speaker and lecturer, movie and television consultant and contributing writer for professional publications. He is currently President/CEO of LHT Consulting Group, AVP to the Founder & Chairman Emeritus of SCI and also serves as Chairman of the National Museum of Funeral History, a 35,000 sq. ft. facility located in Houston, which houses the country’s largest collection of funeral service artifacts.

This two hour program covers in detail the myriad of aspects that must be considered when planning and conducting State funerals and funerals for notables. A look at behind the scenes of how the team of funeral directors and military personnel trained, prepared and executed numerous funeral services as seen by millions around the world.

The two hour presentation covers the American history of the funeral components which makes up a State Funeral including:

- Planning Process
- Master Planning a State Funeral
- Training
- The Nation’s Final Farewell to a President
- The Death of a President and White House Support
- History and Protocols of the Components that makes up a State Funeral

Register here to attend

Wednesday, February 20

$49 for 2 CEU’s

Two presentation times: 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. or 4 - 6 p.m.

At CCMS, 645 W. North Bend Road, Cincinnati

Questions? Email coned@CCMS.edu or call (513) 761-2020